CONNELLSVILLE, PA., THURSDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 6, 1906.

PRICE, ONE CENT.

A CASE CARRIED TO SUPREME COURT FINALLY COMPROMISED ON WEDNESDAY.

Frank Peifly Sells Strip of Land to The Mountain Water Supply Company for $15,000.

CIVIL SUITS NOW ON TRIAL.

T. H. Patton of Brownsville Suing Thomas H. Laidly for Commission As Result of Coal Deal—More Insurance Cases to Be Tried.

UNIONTOWN, Dec. 6.—A legal battle, which was carried to the Supreme Court of this State and won by the plaintiff, has been settled by a compromise. Frank Peifly, formerly of Connellsville, but now residing in Greensburg, and the Mountain Water Supply Company, part of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, have settled their grievances by the latter company purchasing from Peifly a strip of land 55 feet wide, across property owned by the plaintiff, in Uniontown township. In July, 1905, Peifly applied for an injunction to prevent the Mountain Water Supply Company from crossing his land in Uniontown with its pipe line, but this was refused by the county court. Peifly carried the case to the Supreme Court and there the decision of the lower court was reversed and the injunction granted. On Wednesday the two parties agreed to a settlement and Peifly was given $15,000 for his strip of land. The agreement was placed on record and the bond of water company withdrawn.

Before Judge Report this morning the suit of T. H. Patton of Brownsville against Thomas H. Laidly of Uniontown was taken up. This is an action on Patton's part to recover $1,200, alleged to be due him as commission on a coal deal. The plaintiff avers that last December Laidly asked him to dispose of 556 acres of coal land in Alton township, Greene county, which Laidly alleged to have options on at $60 an acre. He is said to have promised Patton half of the profits. Patton claims that he arranged a deal with J. B. Adams of Uniontown to sell the coal land for $65 an acre, but Laidly, it is claimed, interfered with the deal and sold the land to Adams for $60 an acre. Patton claims that Laidly had options on the land at $65 an acre instead of $60, and claims $1,200 as his share.

Eight cases against as many insurance companies, netting the total sum of $30,500, will be tried at the instance of D. J. Johnson and Charles H. Gorley of Uniontown, for damages growing out of the fire at the Exchange Hotel over a year ago. At the last term of court the plaintiffs in these actions were awarded full damages against eight other companies, and it was expected that the present defendant companies would compromise. The companies affected, and the amounts of their policies are: St. Paul Fire & Marine, $2,500; Assurance of London, $5,000; Agricultural, $3,000; Providence & Washington, $5,000; Insurance of Missouri, $2,000; Allco & Munich, $2,500; Royal of London, $5,000; and Germania, $2,500.

Judge Unzel returned from the East on Wednesday and this morning resumed sitting in the small court room. The first case before him was that of Steve Lush against George Roth, to recover $50. Lush alleges that last February he rented a hall from Roth for the purpose of giving a dance. He went to a good bit of expense preparing for the affair, but a few days before the date set, Roth refused to let him have the hall.

The case of the Commercial Sash & Door Company against the Stevall Hall Association of New Haven, which occupied the entire day before Judge Report Wednesday, was terminated in the evening by both parties agreeing to have the jury return a verdict of $100 in favor of the plaintiffs.

True bills have been returned by the Grand Jury against Dr. John F. Detwiler, Robert Atkins and Harry Ware, the last two colored, charged by County Detective McBeth with furnishing County Detectives to minors and others.

The Brownsville trolley car has broken off a fresh and a preliminary injunction has been ordered, restraining the Borough of Brownsville, its Burgess, Town Council and other city officials, from interfering with the work of the Uniontown, Brownsville & West Side Railway. The plaintiffs claim they were given a franchise to lay tracks on Market street, but have been prevented by the borough authorities. Subsequently, they claim, a franchise was given the Brownsville Street Railway Company to lay tracks on the same street.

Following are among the true bills returned by the Grand Jury:

Isaac Taylor, Thomas S. Jones, after Thomas H. Laidly, for receiving stolen goods; W. A. Metzler, prosecutor; Jacob Smith, assault and battery; W. H. Hart, prosecutor. James Show

OVERALL PLANT.

E. E. Britton Who Is Promoting Location of Factory Here Is Hopeful of Success.

It reports be true, an overall factory will be located in Connellsville sometime in January. As stated in The Courier several weeks ago, E. E. Britton of Pittsburgh has been here for more than a month endeavoring to interest either the Merchants' Association or the Board of Trade in the project. Mr. Britton went to Pittsburgh this morning, but will return with a few days.

Speaking of the matter this morning Britton stated that his proposition had met with favor from several local business men. The factory is at present located at Pittsburgh, but the owners desire to enlarge the plant. For this reason the change of location was contemplated.

Mr. Britton spoke in high terms regarding the Board of Trade and the Japonesque rights in California. The person least excited by the question in Washington is Japonesque Ambassador Aoki.

Supervising Architect of the Treasury J. Knox Taylor will visit Johnson and Connellsville during the Christmas holidays to investigate the matter of sites for public buildings at these places. Representatives Cooper and Reynolds talked with Mr. Taylor on this subject yesterday. One hundred and thirty thousand dollars was appropriated for the site and building at Johnson, and $20,000 for a site at Connellsville.

The House Wednesday passed a bill permitting national banking associations to make loans on real estate as security, and limiting the amount of such loans. The vote was 111 to 51. The opponents of the measure insisted that real estate was not proper security for national banks. Mr. Hepburn of Iowa and Mr. Williams of Mississippi urged that the bill would aid the farmers very greatly and have a tendency to reduce stock speculation.

The bill now goes to the Senate.

TEA POT TEMPEST.

Washington Now Looks Upon Japanese War Cloud as Such—Treasury Official Coming to Connellsville.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—[Special] After a spasm of Japonesque which caused shivers of excitement in the fringes of official circles here, the great Japonesque war cloud of 1906 seems to have been dissipated and to have left only a rumbling in California. The cloud is now considered by the officials most concerned to have been part of a tremendous tempest in a teapot. The segregation of some 60 Japanese from the graded schools in San Francisco, two-thirds of whom happened to be full grown, is not now considered justification for the war talk it created, to say nothing of the serious discussion of State's rights by members of Congress. Those who agree with the President's views on the Japanese matter as expressed in his message admit that the President overplayed his position and that he could have accomplished his purpose of adjourning Japonesque wrath by a less drastic declaration about enforcing Japanese rights in California. The person least excited by the question in Washington is Japonesque Ambassador Aoki.

CONFESSES MURDER.

Chester Gillette Said to Have Made This Admission to His Counsel This Morning.

HICKOK, Dec. 6.—[Special] Chester Gillette, facing death in the electric chair for killing Grace Brown, has confessed to his counsel that he killed the girl. Gillette tried to deceive his attorneys, but a false slip of the tongue revealed his atrocious deed. The confession became known today. Part of it was heard by the prison officials.

Gillette this morning was recounting the story that the girl had taken her life to Senator Mills in his cell. In a moment of mental lapse he said: "When she came up the first time after sinking in the water, I struck her."

"You wretch, why didn't you tell me this before," Mills said.

Gillette will probably not be sentenced today as his counsel have no time to prepare papers asking for a new trial. Gillette is being guarded closely for fear of an attempt at self-destruction.

CONNELL PHILLIPS

DIED ON MONDAY.

They Will Meet With Officials of the B. & O. in Baltimore Early Next Monday.

Grandson of Founder of Connellsville Existed in California.

HERE DURING THE CENTENNIAL.

But Left Soon After That Event to Visit Relatives Along the Pacific Coast—Was Born in Connellsville 77 Years Ago, Living Here Many Years

Word has been received here of the death of Connell Phillips, grandson of Zachariah Connell, founder of Connellsville, at the home of his sister Mrs. Edith Darnell, San Diego Cal. Mr. Phillips died Monday. He is survived by one son, Frank Phillips, who is in California, and two sisters, Mrs. Darnell and Mrs. Annie Lake, also living on the Pacific Coast. Mrs. S. S. Koen of South Connellsville, Mrs. J. Harry McGraw and Miss Martha Carter of Connellsville are granddaughters.

Mr. Phillips was in Connellsville during the Centennial celebration last August, coming here from Uniontown, where he was then making his home. He left soon after the celebration for California, to visit relatives. Deceased was 77 years of age. Seven years ago his wife, who was Miss Jane Jones of Uniontown, Allegheny, died. Mr. Phillips was a descendant of Zachariah Connell by his first wife.

Mr. Phillips was born in Connellsville and lived here for many years. When here during the Centennial he said that he remembered his grandfather, the founder of the town, and told many interesting reminiscences of Connellsville in the early days.

NEW HAVEN ROBBERY.

Burglars Enter Hardware Store of Work & Co. During Night.

Sometime during the night burglars broke into the hardware store of Work & Co., Main street, New Haven, and took away goods to considerable value. Six revolvers, two double barreled shot guns, 50 penknives and about 10 razors were stolen. Entrance was gained by breaking a big glass in the front door with stones. The burglars left no clue as to their identity.

Last September the store was broken into and a quantity of goods stolen. It was then under the proprietorship of P. M. Pfeifer. Policeman Joseph O'Bryan, who is on at night, knew nothing of the robbery until told about it at noon today. Officer O'Bryan goes off duty about three o'clock in the morning, and he thinks the robbery must have been committed after that hour.

TO ATTEND HEARING.

Captain Horn Went to West Newton This Morning.

Captain Charles Horn, of the B. & O. police force, left this morning on train No. 3 for West Newton, to attend the hearing of Patrick Egan charged with wrecking No. 10 at Gulf Ferry Saturday night.

The hearing will be held this afternoon before Justice Straugh of West Newton. Superintendent of Police Captain of Baltimore and Capt. Thomas Dolcherty of Pittsburgh will also be in attendance. The B. & O. officers profess to have a strong line of circumstantial evidence against Egan.

WEATHER MAN BAD.

He Was Away Off in His Prediction for Today.

The weather man was away off in his prediction for today. He said it will snow. Instead it rained all night and changed off this morning with April-like showers and warm days from Old Sol. The Young river is rising rapidly from the heavy rains of the last 24 hours.

The weather bulletin at noon today says: Snow buries and decidedly colder tonight. Friday temperature will fail to freezing or below.

"You wretch, why didn't you tell me this before," Mills said.

Gillette will probably not be sentenced today as his counsel have no time to prepare papers asking for a new trial. Gillette is being guarded closely for fear of an attempt at self-destruction.

DRESS CAUGHT BY WHEELS.

Then She Was Dragged Under the Engine and Death Came Instantly
Tried to Hold On, and if She Could Have Done So Her Life Would Have Been Spared.

SCOTTDALe Dec 6.—There must have been a minute or two of most exciting mental agony for Mrs. Adam Klotzner just before she was dragged under the southbound morning passenger train on the Southwest Branch and killed at Valley works, Wednesday morning. She came from behind a building and stepped onto the cow catcher of the train. People there saw her clinging to the cow catcher and thought she was safe as a section man flagged the train and it slowed down. But the unfortunate woman's skirt went back and caught by the pony wheels she was dragged from her place on the cowcatcher and under the wheels. The engineer did not see her from his side and the fireman was down shoveling coal when the woman was struck. Neither knew what the train was flagged for until the section men told them that the train had killed a woman. She was the wife of a well to do miner, Klotzner who is known as Kotzman. It is said that at the time she had $80 on her person. A search was made along the track, but no money was found. The body was taken to Connellsville.

Misses Dossie and Amy Porter were in Mt. Pleasant on Wednesday attending a missionary meeting.

BREWERS INTERESTED.

Amendment Proposed Next Winter to the Liquor Law.

The liquor men throughout the country are just now interested in a amendment to the present law governing the sale of liquors which has been prepared by R. H. McLean, a well known attorney at the Washington county bar. The bill will be presented to the next Legislature. The new measure will require the payment of a license fee by all agents of breweries, distilleries and whole sale houses who sell orders to deliver goods sent them by the manufacturer and lots without operating a license store. The present law permits the operation of these embouchure agencies. It is considered that these agencies make sales returns in excess of those made at regularly established houses and should be taxed as heavily as the present licensed establishments. The measure requires that it shall be unlawful for any person company or corporation operating a licensed brewer, distiller or wholesale house to establish or maintain an agent or agency separate from said brewery, distillery or wholesale establishment without first having obtained a license so as to be provided by the existing laws of the Commonwealth regulation of the sale of such liquors by wholesale.

THE JAPANESE QUESTION.

The Japanese question has been given a great deal more prominence than its importance demanded. The Constitution and the laws, and treaties made in pursuance thereof, govern the whole question. The President and the Japanese, the Congress and the Californians, will all have to bow to them. It is just as well to bow gracefully, and in the meantime to remain quiet and not raise such a tremendous row.

Senator Knox, who has the happy faculty of drawing simple and just conclusions from the crystal depths of a judicial and dispassionate mind, has expressed the situation clearly. It is a question of law, pure and simple.

The treaties made by the Federal Government are unquestionably binding upon the Sovereign States. California is bound by the treaty with Japan to give her citizens such consideration as is properly extended to other foreign residents; but whether it is a duty imposed by treaty to educate them is open to question.

In the making of treaties, each nation is presumed to know the laws of another and especially the limitations, if any there be, upon the treaty-making powers. In the case of the United States, the powers of Federal Government are limited to those conferred especially by the Constitution, all others being reserved to the States. The common school system of the country is peculiarly a State institution. The Federal Government never had ought to do with it, and never contributed a dollar to its support. It is a matter over which the Federal powers have no jurisdiction whatever. It is a right reserved to the States themselves. It is fair to assume, therefore, that the right to a common school education at public expense was not one of the rights that could be conferred by treaty upon Japanese subjects residing in this country, or which was intended to be conferred.

The serious part about it is that most of the States, perhaps California included, have been permitting the children of foreign subjects resident within their borders to attend their public schools and be educated at public expense, not as a right, but as a duty to civilization and an investment in present good order and possible future good citizenship. This fact has impelled the Japanese to demand as a right that which has been extended as a voluntary offering by the States themselves.

Neither Japan nor any other nation should expect the United States or any of them to educate their subjects, adult or juvenile, at the public expense. It is unfair and inequitable to the American taxpayers of each community. This feeling found expression in Pennsylvania in the passage of a law levying a poll tax upon foreign residents. The law was declared unconstitutional because it conflicted with the treaty rights of the latter.

It is clear that we may not tax foreign subjects, but does it follow that we have to feed or clothe, or educate them?

If there is any doubt about this matter of compulsory education of foreign subjects it ought to be made plain, and now is the time to do it. It is gratifying, therefore, to know that the proper and orderly procedure has been inaugurated. If the decision of the courts shall be distasteful to the Japanese Government, or to the citizens of California, the existing treaty should be amended in such manner as to provide for such education as far as possible on just and satisfactory conditions.

GOOD ROADS IN FAYETTE.
A Good Roads movement has been inaugurated in Fayette county which promises to go a great way toward bettering our township highways. The prosecution of the Springfield township Supervisors, and the threatened prosecution of others, means that the taxpayers propose to try enforcing the old laws before trying any of the new and more permanent road improvement plans.

The plan is a sensible one and will command itself to everybody but the Supervisors. It must be admitted that even the honest Supervisor who has tried to do his duty, and has perhaps done as well as any man could do, is likely to be subject to the same annoyance, humiliation and expense that will overtake the negligent, incompetent and dishonest official. The zeal of reform is often blind to the individual, and the movement sweeps down the innocent with the guilty. The former will have to be content with the proud distinction of martyrdom to the cause.

A vigorous prosecution of negligent Supervisors will discourage other seekers hunting soft spots from including that position in their category, and will leave it open to honest, industrious, competent men. Such men can do wonders in the line of road improvement in many Fayette county townships.

They could do better if they were under the direct supervision of a county inspector who combined a knowledge of engineering and road-making. Many Supervisors are honest and energetic, but they lack skill and experience in their work. They do the best they know how, but they don't know how to do best.

POWERS OF PIT BOSS.

The decision in the Hettnerman damage case raises some new and interesting questions under the Pennsylvania mining law. It recognizes the mine boss as a quasi State official charged with serious duties and clothed with large powers, for the enforcement of which he alone is responsible.

It is plain that these duties and powers may at times seriously conflict with the views and wishes of his employer, in which event it is hardly probable that they would be strictly enforced. In the case under consideration, however, it was claimed that the complainant received serious injuries by reason of a heading having been worked too narrow. It was the duty of the pit boss to see that the heading was properly worked, and in this case his employer's wishes were not in conflict but, in consonance with his duties in this regard, and as a matter of equity the employers were very properly discharged of responsibility. But the pit boss is not.

In arguing the Union bridge case "Dave" Wilson was not "sawy" to the United States Supreme Court. He probably thinks he is as big as any of his enemies, and perhaps he is, but he is bound to realize that to give the awful dignity of silk-gown justice, it is expressed the situation clearly. It is a question of law, pure and simple.

The treaties made by the Federal Government are unquestionably binding upon the Sovereign States. California is bound by the treaty with Japan to give her citizens such consideration as is properly extended to other foreign residents; but whether it is a duty imposed by treaty to educate them is open to question.

In the making of treaties, each nation is presumed to know the laws of another and especially the limitations, if any there be, upon the treaty-making powers. In the case of the United States, the powers of Federal Government are limited to those conferred especially by the Constitution, all others being reserved to the States. The common school system of the country is peculiarly a State institution. The Federal Government never had ought to do with it, and never contributed a dollar to its support. It is a matter over which the Federal powers have no jurisdiction whatever. It is a right reserved to the States themselves. It is fair to assume, therefore, that the right to a common school education at public expense was not one of the rights that could be conferred by treaty upon Japanese subjects residing in this country, or which was intended to be conferred.

LYDIA NICCOLS GETS DIVORCE.

Dublin Court Finally Frees
Fayette County Girl From Her Husband.

A LONG LEGAL FIGHT IS ENDED.

Gerald P. Fitzgerald, an Irishman and Former Captain in English Army, Met Miss Nicolls in California and the Romance Was Short.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—Mrs. Gerald Purcell Fitzgerald, formerly Miss Lydia Nicolls of Brownsville and Uniontown, Pa., was yesterday crowned victor in her long battle for divorce from her husband, whom she charged with a series of crimes against morality, as well as having abused her. The formal granting of the decree took place in the Dublin courts yesterday, the action being witnessed by a concourse of fashionable friends of both parties to the action.

Mrs. Fitzgerald has contested long for her liberty from a husband who, it is alleged, was unable to meet with any credit to himself the charges that were brought against him.

On the stand the belligerent told of the many trials which, she said, she had been forced to undergo since her marriage to Fitzgerald. Her story was a pitiful recital of long-continued ill treatment and neglect. Her husband, she said, was frequently away from home for weeks at a time, and when at home he was wont to display a tyrannical and despotic temper. One night last year, Mrs. Fitzgerald testified, she had her husband watched. He was seen to meet a woman at the Paddington railway station; then the two returned to the city and registered at a first class hotel as man and wife.

When Fitzgerald was apprised of the result of the suit he merely shrugged his shoulders. This action was not in accordance with his bitter battle against his wife. He contested every inch of the way and opposed every move looking to the successful termination of her suit.

UNIONTOWN, Dec. 6.—Word was received here last evening of the granting of a divorce in Dublin, Ireland, of Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald, formerly Miss Lydia Nicolls of this place. Mrs. Fitzgerald is a daughter of John A. Nicolls and Mrs. Lenora Nicolls, the latter a sister of J. V. Thompson, the millionaire coal and railroad man of this place.

In 1899 the young girl left with her mother for Los Angeles, Cal., where she met Fitzgerald, who at that time owned a large ranch near Los Angeles. Soon afterward the couple were married and sailed for London, where they made their home. It is said the marriage was opposed by Mrs. Fitzgerald's American relatives and when suit for divorce was brought J. V. Thompson sent Attorney D. T. Watson of Pittsburgh abroad to conduct his niece's case. The granting of the divorce is received here joyfully by relatives of Mrs. Fitzgerald. Her mother has been with her during the trial. Her father is dead.

Gerald P. Fitzgerald, with a party of friends, was in Uniontown for a week last fall. Fitzgerald is owner of the Fayette Coke Company.

From Westmoreland's County Seat.

GREENSBURG, Dec. 6.—Four days and four months is the sentence received in court yesterday by Vlado Vanakovic, the Croatian, who fatally shot Constable George S. Anderson at New Florence last October. He was sentenced by Judge Doty, who stated that the term was given more as an example to other foreigners who dare to carry arms in this country. The sentence was much lighter than had been expected here.

Donna C. Ogden made an able address in behalf of the prisoner, advancing the ground that he had been convicted of voluntary manslaughter solely because no lower degree of crime was named in the bill of indictment. He claimed further that the officers had read no warrant to the Const when they arrested him, and that he did not know they were officers when he fired his revolver twice, seemingly in self defense.

Looking for Forger.

The Jeannette police last night notified Greensburg, Connellsville and Uniontown officers to look out for one Charles Cravotte, a Frenchman, who is wanted there for forgery. Cravotte went into C. A. Carter's furniture store last night at 7 o'clock and looked over some small chairs. He selected one, costing $3.50, and tendered a check signed by the Jeannette Glass Bottle Company, drawn on a local bank for $15. Carter gave Cravotte the chair and the change and the latter left.

He disposed of the chair in a short time and took a street car for Greensburg. A companion, who had been seen loafing around town with him during the day, was arrested. This man refused to give his name and denied all knowledge of Cravotte. Greensburg officers watched the cars last night but could not locate Cravotte. They think he kept on going towards Fayette county. He is a tall man, dark, with small mustache, and has a foreign appearance, although reasonably well dressed.

Will Send Inspector.

Senator Cyrus E. Woods yesterday communicated with Health Commissioner S. G. Dixon relative to the alarming epidemic of typhoid fever on Academy Hill, where there are a dozen cases. Commissioner Dixon will send a man on at once to investigate the surroundings, and in case he can not locate the superinducing cause, Dixon will make Greensburg a person al visit.

It is hinted that heavy shade trees have roots entwined with sewer joints along North Maple avenue and North Main streets, and that leaking sewer also spreads the contagion. The streets will be carefully inspected at once.

No Date Set.

Coroner Wynn has not yet set a date for the inquest on the death of Engineer Sheppard, who was killed in the B. & O. wreck at Gulfay station last Saturday night. He is awaiting instructions from the railroad company, who tell him they are making a rigid investigation for the purpose of placing the blame for the wreck on men who were found early on the scene of the disaster.

They ask that the investigation be deferred until they have secured all possible evidence, and Coroner Wynn will grant their wish in this respect. He has not yet decided whether it will be necessary to disinter Sheppard's body in order to swear a jury.

Caused Surprise Here.

Word from Smithfield, to the effect that the committee appointed by the School Board to investigate the conduct of Prof. F. R. House during his sojourn here November 15, had reported nothing wrong with House's condition, caused great surprise here and not a little comment.

The representative who saw Chief of Police A. K. Hutchinson was told emphatically that House was either drunk or "doped." House admitted to the Chief and to Burgess Sell that he had been drinking and that the liquor had "gone to his head."

At his hearing before Justice of the Peace J. F. Beatty last Saturday, T. K. Shaver stated several times that House was drunk while he was here, and that is why he does not clearly remember how he happened to be in West Pittsburg street. Considering these facts, so well known here, it seems strange that the Smithfield School Board should take such action, when House is indicted on a charge of felonious assault.

Lorar is Plaintiff.

Captain A. J. Lorar, the veteran soldier of Mt. Pleasant, is plaintiff in a damage suit against the borough. Captain Lorar asks for damages resulting from a break in borough water mains, which allowed his property to be flooded. The case is now on trial before Judge McConnell.

Captain Lorar is very proud of Mt. Pleasant's new armory. He is the "father" of Company E, Tenth Regiment.

OUT OF SORTS.

People Not Really Sick Are Often
Most in Need of Care.

The people who actually are most in need of kind words and medical treatment are not those who are really sick, but just "out of sorts."

The old-time energy, force, strength and happy spirits are lacking; the physical and mental powers are flagging; there is poor appetite, and they cannot get the good out of the food they eat. In nine cases out of ten, this results directly from a weakened stomach and not other treatment equals McEona to restore strength and health.

When the nerves and muscles are weak, if there is sleeplessness, irritability, and specks before the eyes, when the head aches and there is a dull pain in the back and there is any distress and heaviness in the stomach, dizziness, and sometimes nausea, the use of McEona stomach tablets for a few days will make a world of improvement, and continued use for a reasonable time will restore health.

These tablets are not mere digestives; they absolutely strengthen all the organs of digestion, so that there is good appetite, perfect digestion and strong nerves, when they are used.

A large box of McEona stomach tablets is sold for 50 cents by A. A. Clark, with an absolute guarantee that they will be successful in curing indigestion and restoring health, or the money will be refunded. Ask A. A. Clark to show you the liberal guarantee he gives with every 50-cent box of McEona.

A New Back for An Old One—How It Can Be Done.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pain shoot across the region of the kidney, and again the pains are so lame, to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the back for now and stronger one.

John J. Cashman, cutter, employee at Lockhart & Cutler's store, and living at the Taylor House, Washington, Pa., says: "When living in Butler, Pa., in 1897, I took Doan's Kidney Pills for a severe case of backache and kidney trouble. I think it is taken off me at this time, but I am not quite sure.

I can now recommend it to my friends. It is a good medicine for rheumatism and sciatica.

These Jr. Health & Bennett Supply Co.,

are manufacturing a special formula for rheumatism and sciatica.

Old Santa Now Bids All the Boys and Girls to Come.

Our Holiday Toy Store Opens Friday, December 7th.

Months and months ago when Old Santa and his reindeer were last here filling up the stockings and covering the Christmas trees with pretty things, his agents and helpers were in far off lands making preparations for the season that is now with us, gathering great hosts of toys, dolls and games that you will see here today. In no other way could this toy store be so complete and interesting.

It is a Wonderful Sight, This Toy Store, One That Mothers and Fathers Will Enjoy as Well as the Little Folks.

When we say that EVERY TOY that is new this year, every toy that was good last year, is here, we have covered the ground. Come to the store today, bring the children along, let them have full sway, let them enjoy themselves to the full. We furnish all the features, all the entertainment, and we want your children to enjoy it to the full.

The First Opportunity You Have Had to Choose Wright-Metzler Millinery at Reduced Prices.

A twenty-five per cent. reduction effecting our entire collection of Millinery affords the women of this section a rare opportunity in the purchase of stylish head gear. It's an innovation for Wright-Metzler Co. to offer their exclusive pattern hats at a reduction at this season, and a Millinery sale at this time of year was always restricted to the lesser priced groups, but this

Reduction Is Sweeping and Includes Every Hat
in the Store.

Here are beautiful creations, exclusive productions of our own work rooms that formerly sold at $25.00, now $18.75, and from this price down to the chic little trimmed shapes that sold at $2.00, now $1.50. If you have wished the possession of any particular hat and thought the price a little beyond your means, this reduction may bring it within your reach, but we suggest an early inspection, as our Millinery sales, especially one of this nature, are always very successful and the response is immediate owing to the distinctive character of our stocks.

Sale Begins Friday, Dec. 7th, 2nd Floor.

Men's Winter Underwear, 34c.

This is a grade of Underwear that would be considered a good value at 50 cents if we had obtained it through the usual channels, but we secured it through a very lucky purchase and are able now to present to you heavy Winter Underwear in ribbed or fleece lined, and perfect in every detail at 34c A Garment or Three Garments for $1.00.

Toys That Suggest Strength and "Right Price."

There can be but one best toy store, to be sure. It may be here, it may be elsewhere. We have no right to say ours is the best. If we think so it is for you to judge. We know, however, that we have searched the toy markets thoroughly; have brought to the store every conceivable kind of toy, that we have enough to supply every demand that may be made upon us.

We can do little more—can we? Three things in a nut-shell govern the holiday store.

Novelty, Substantiality and "Right Prices."

NOVELTY. The active youngster is always alive to something new. The old hobby horse serves to entertain him, but the new pushmobile would switch his fancy like a flash. So novelty must be apparent in toyland, and novelty we have a plenty.

SUBSTANTIALITY. The plaything whose weakness and faults are covered with a flurry of pretty paint. The one that wrecks anticipation and pleasure and brings sudden disaster and discontent because of faulty construction, we try to avoid. Parents easily understand the result of mishaps to the new toys on Christmas Day. So substantiality is a strong point in this Toy Store, everywhere apparent as you wonder through Toyland.

RIGHT PRICES. When buying day comes prices cut a figure as well as a hole in the purse. We order our toys direct from Germany, and going to the German instead of him coming to us, saves you money.

Today we are only at the entrance of Toyland. It's a nineteen day pilgrimage to the exit gate, and there is much to see and much to do before we hang up our stocking.

A Pre-Holiday Sale of Women's Suits

THAT DECREASES THE PRICE OF
EVERY SUIT IN THE HOUSE
TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT, AND IN MANY CASES EVEN MORE.

We offer this attractive buying opportunity in our suit section today, every item insuring a bona fide saving of fully one-quarter. There's not a single value that will not be a revelation to you.

WRIGHT-METZLER COMPANY'S STYLES ARE ACKNOWLEDGED TO BE THE MOST APPROVED IN CON-
NELLSVILLE. EACH CREATION
POSSESSING AN INDIVIDUALITY
THAT APPEALS TO THOSE SMART
DRESSERS WHO HAVE BEEN IN THE HABIT OF HAVING THEIR GARMENTS MADE TO ORDER.

Besides there's a lasting worth about everything we sell, honest constructive attributes that insure garments keeping their shape to the very end. That's why our suit and cloak business has enjoyed such a phenomenal growth, why our daily sales show such a decided increase. If you have never tested the worth of ready-to-wear apparel such as this offering deals with, this forms an opportunity for you to break into the army of women who race the world in tailored suits, and who are paying nearly half the price for their suits that you are and still rival you in appearance.

This offer includes nothing but strictly new models fashioned from the most desirable fabrics and regularly priced from $13.50 to $50.00. The new prices are one-fourth off the regular prices.

Boys' Fleece-Lined Underwear, 16c.

With Christmas so close at hand and with all the necessary Christmas expense, this offering will appeal most strongly to parents, for it will enable you to properly clothe your boy at a mere pittance, and it's good heavy underwear, such as you always pay 25c for. Today we offer it at 16c.

A Sale of Pictures, 48c.

In Gilt Frames
18x21
Inches.

90 Suits of Men's Clothing at Half Price.

This group deals with clothing in which the run of sizes is incomplete. The fabrics are new and the suits are stylishly tailored, but the very popularity that these lines have enjoyed cause the remaining ones to be thus sharply reduced. If your size is among them, it is a rarely good opportunity to obtain a perfect fitting and faultlessly constructed suit at just half its worth.

These pictures are in beautiful colorings and reproductions of famous paintings. The frames are heavy gilt with brass trimmings. The quantity in which we bought these pictures enables us to retail them at this seemingly impossible price. You have given a dollar for pictures no better, and in many cases not the equal of these. This forms an admirable opportunity to secure gifts that many of your friends would appreciate. We direct your attention to the display of these pictures in our east window.

Men's Winter Clothing at Remarkable Reductions

Prices form the Strongest of Buying Incentives and the Logical Reason for these Lowered Prices Will Appeal to Your Business Sense.

Now's the time that Wooten Mills clear out their surplus yardage, discontinued numbers, etc. Now's the time manufacturers of clothing clear out their lines of Winter Merchandise. Now's the time Wright-Metzler Co. clear their own stocks. Big November business having depleted certain lines in even this big assortment. The strength of the Wright-Metzler organization, it's buying advantages, it's ability to affect quick and complete distribution and it's volume of business bring to this establishment values impossible elsewhere in this region.

$11.25 For All-Wool Suits Up to $20.00 in Value.

Every Suit in this collection was fashioned and tailored by MICHEAL STERNS & CO., of Rochester, N. Y., and present concrete examples of the advance of modern clothes making. There is nothing abstract, nothing intangible about our claims made for their superior excellence. They indicate progression in every phase. This offer does not deal with any but the most up-to-the-minute models, including the most desirable of 1906 fabrics.
